NEW JUDGE WELCOMED TO THE SUPREME COURT

The NSW Attorney General, Greg Smith SC, today announced the appointment of Stephen Campbell SC, as a judge of the Supreme Court of NSW.

“Mr Campbell is an experienced senior counsel who has a strong background in personal injuries law and insurance law,” Mr Smith said.

“This extensive background includes industrial accidents, motor accidents, and liability insurance matters.”

Mr Campbell is currently the Chair of the New South Wales Bar Association Common Law Committee. Mr Campbell is also a Member of the Law Council of Australia’s Personal Injuries and Compensation Committee.

“Since taking Silk in October 2002, Mr Campbell has continued to practice law in his chosen field, focusing on larger and more complex cases,” Mr Smith said.

Mr Campbell was called to the NSW Bar in November 1985 and was appointed to Senior Counsel in October 2002.

Mr Campbell will take up his new role as a judge of the Supreme Court in the Common Law Division from 30 April and will be sworn in on 2 May 2012.

“I congratulate Mr Campbell on his appointment and wish him every success as a judge of the Supreme Court of NSW,” Mr Smith said.
