22  Linguistic and cultural factors to be considered

(1)  On becoming aware that a detainee who is being interviewed for the purposes of this Part may be disadvantaged by linguistic or cultural factors, an interviewer must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the detainee has the assistance of a person who can act as an appropriate interpreter or provide appropriate cultural guidance.

(2)  Such a person need not be present at the interview so long as he or she is available to the detainee by telephone or audio visual link during the interview.

(3)  If the interviewer makes a report that assesses a detainee for the purposes of this Part, the interviewer:

(a)  must take into consideration any linguistic or cultural factors that may disadvantage the detainee, and

(2) The centre manager:
   (a) must have regard to the wishes of any parent or guardian of a detainee who is under 16 years of age in relation to the management of visits to the detainee, and

26 Visits by legal practitioners and their clerks
(1) A detainee may be visited by the detainee’s legal practitioner, or by a clerk authorised in writing by the detainee’s legal practitioner, to discuss or transact legal business (whether civil or criminal) in which the detainee has an interest.

(4) However, a visit to a detainee by a police officer in the course of the police officer’s official duties must take place within the sight and hearing of a juvenile justice officer.

(5) The Secretary may permit a person:
   (a) to visit a detention centre, and
   (b) to conduct research in the centre, and
   (c) to be afforded facilities to interview, talk to and examine any detainee (but only with the detainee’s consent) outside the sight and hearing of a juvenile justice officer.

(1) A visitor must not deliver to or receive from any detainee (whether on the visitor’s own behalf or on behalf of any other person) any article of any kind, except in accordance with this clause.

   Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

(2) The centre manager, or a juvenile justice officer authorised by the centre manager for that purpose, may permit a visitor to deliver an article to a detainee or a juvenile justice officer at the detention centre for delivery to a detainee.

33 Refusal and termination of visits

(1) A detainee who is of or above the age of 16 years may refuse to receive a visitor.

(2) The centre manager may, despite any other provision of this Division, refuse to permit a visit if, in the opinion of the centre manager, the security, safety or good order of the detention centre, or the health or well-being of a detainee, is likely to be adversely affected if the visit is permitted.
(3) The centre manager may terminate a visit to a detainee and direct the visitor to leave the detention centre if, in the opinion of the centre manager:
   (a) the visitor or detainee has, during the visit, contravened the Act, this Regulation, the general routine of the detention centre or the procedure for visits, or
   (b) the security, safety or good order of the detention centre, or the health or well-being of a detainee, is likely to be adversely affected if the visit continues.

   Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

(5) The centre manager must cause a record to be kept of:

34 Removal of face coverings by visitors

(1) A juvenile justice officer may require a visitor to remove any face covering worn by the visitor so as to enable the visitor’s face to be seen by the officer or another juvenile justice officer or person assisting in following the procedures set out in subclause (2).

(2) A juvenile justice officer who requires a visitor to remove a face covering under this clause must, as far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that the following procedures are followed:
   (a) the juvenile justice officer must ask for the visitor’s co-operation,
   (b) the viewing of the visitor’s face must be conducted:
      (i) in a way that provides reasonable privacy for the visitor if the visitor requests privacy, and
      (ii) as quickly as is reasonably practicable,
   (c) the viewing of the face of a child under 12 years of age may only be conducted if a responsible person for the child is present during the viewing,
   (d) if the visitor is 12 years old or older and requests it—the viewing of the visitor’s face is to be conducted by a juvenile justice officer of the same sex as the visitor or, if a juvenile justice officer of that sex is unavailable, by another person of that sex at the direction of a juvenile justice officer,
   (e) if the visitor is a child under 12 years old and the responsible person for the child requests it—the viewing of the child’s face is to be conducted by a female juvenile justice officer or, if a female juvenile justice officer is unavailable, by another female person at the direction of a juvenile justice officer.

(3) It is sufficient compliance with a requirement made under this clause if only so much of the face covering as prevents the visitor’s face from being seen is removed.

(4) A juvenile justice officer may not require a visitor to remove a face covering under this clause if the visitor establishes, to the officer’s satisfaction, that the visitor has a special justification for not removing the face covering.
   Note. A special justification includes having a legitimate medical reason for not removing the face covering.

(5) A visitor who does not comply with a requirement under this clause may be refused a visit to the detention centre.
(6) In this clause:

- face and face covering have the same meanings as they have in the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002.
- responsible person for a child has the same meaning as it has in section 10 of the Court Security Act 2005.

(5) This clause does not apply to or in respect of any of the following visitors:

(3) The centre manager may destroy any part of a confiscated photograph, film, tape or recording which the centre manager is satisfied is likely to prejudice the security, safety or good order of a detention centre or place anyone’s personal safety at risk.

(4) Any part of the photograph, film, tape or recording that the centre manager is satisfied is not likely to prejudice the security, safety or good order of a detention centre, or place anyone’s personal safety at risk, may be returned to the person from whom it was taken.

(5) Before returning any photograph, film, tape or recording, the centre manager may charge the person for payment of any costs incurred in processing or developing it.

   (b) from visiting detainees generally, or from visiting any specified detainee or class of detainees, in the detention centre.

(3) An order made under this clause is a banning order.

(4) A banning order may not be made in relation to a person except on the grounds that:
   (a) the person has contravened a provision of the Act or this Regulation while visiting a detention centre or a detainee at a detention centre, or
   (b) a visit by the person to a detention centre or a detainee at a detention centre might constitute a risk to the security, safety or good order of the detention centre.

(5) A banning order:
   (a) must specify the grounds on which it is made, and
   (b) has effect for such period (not exceeding 12 months from the day on which it to the Secretary for a review of the decision to make the order.

(6) Despite any other provision of this Part, a detainee may not be visited by any person

40  Inspection of mail and parcels

(1) A centre manager or a juvenile justice officer authorised by the centre manager may open, inspect and read a letter or parcel sent to or by a detainee and, if it contains prohibited goods, may confiscate the letter or parcel and its contents and deal with them in accordance with the directions of the Secretary.

(2) The detainee is to be informed of the confiscation of any letter, parcel or prohibited goods.

(3) A centre manager may direct that any written or pictorial matter contained in a letter or parcel opened, inspected or read under this clause be copied before the letter or parcel containing the matter is delivered to the addressee.

(4) The direction may be given only if the centre manager or juvenile justice officer is of the opinion that the written or pictorial matter to be copied:
   (a) contains anything likely to prejudice the good order and security of the centre, or
   (b) is threatening, offensive, indecent, obscene or abusive.

(5) If the centre manager takes possession of a letter or parcel or its contents, the centre manager must ensure that the detainee to whom the letter or parcel is addressed is notified of that fact.

(6) This clause does not apply to any letter or parcel addressed to, or received from, an exempt body or exempt person.

41  Correspondence with exempt bodies and persons

(1) If a detainee delivers to a juvenile justice officer a letter addressed to an exempt body or an exempt person:
   (a) the officer must send the letter immediately to the body or person to whom it is addressed, and
   (b) the letter must not be opened, inspected or read by anyone except the person or body to whom it has been addressed or by some person authorised by that person or body.

(2) A letter addressed to a detainee from an exempt body must not be opened, inspected or read by anyone except the detainee to whom it is addressed or some person authorised by that detainee.

(3) If an exempt person sends to a detainee a letter in a sealed envelope accompanied by a letter addressed to the centre manager claiming privilege in respect of the letter in the sealed envelope, the sealed envelope and letter must not be opened, inspected or read by anyone except the detainee or some person authorised by the detainee.

(4) However, if the centre manager is of the opinion that the sealed envelope may contain contraband or any item or matter that is likely to adversely affect the security, safety or good order of the detention centre, the centre manager may require the detainee to open the sealed envelope in the centre manager’s presence.

(5) If a sealed envelope so opened is found to contain contraband or any item or matter that, in the opinion of the centre manager, is likely to adversely affect the security, safety or good order of the detention centre, the centre manager may take possession of the envelope and its contents and may deal with them in accordance with any directions given specifically or generally by the Secretary.

(3) The centre manager must ensure that procedures are in place that facilitate telephone contact in accordance with this clause on the day the request is made or as soon as practicable after that day.

(4) This clause does not prevent the centre manager from authorising telephone contact with persons or bodies not referred to in this clause.

44 Monitoring of telephone calls

(1) The Secretary may cause an officer authorised for the purpose to monitor one or more of a detainee’s telephone calls.

(2) The Secretary may determine the procedure for monitoring telephone calls.
(3) The Secretary must ensure that procedures are in place so that both the maker and the recipient of a telephone call that is monitored are informed that the call is being monitored before the call is made or at the start of the call.

Note. The Telecommunications (Interception and Access) Act 1979 of the Commonwealth prohibits the interception of a communication passing over a telecommunications system without the knowledge of the person making the communication.

(3) When giving a detainee an opportunity to speak, the centre manager or other juvenile justice officer must consider what the detainee has to say and must inform the detainee of any action that the centre manager or other juvenile justice officer has taken or proposes to take or (if no such action is taken or proposed) of the fact that the centre manager or other juvenile justice officer does not propose to take any action.

59 Matters to be taken into account before leave granted

In deciding whether or not to grant day leave or overnight leave to a person subject to control, the Secretary must have regard to the following matters:

(a) whether the person would be likely to commit any offence if the person were to be granted leave,

(b) whether the granting of leave would be likely to create a risk to public safety,

(c) whether the person’s conduct while detained in a detention centre indicates that the person would observe any conditions to which leave would be subject,

(e) any previous history of escape or absconding of the person from lawful custody,

(f) the kind of supervision to which the person would be likely to be subject while on leave,

(g) whether the granting of leave would be likely to bring the person into contact with any victim of the offence in relation to which the person is detained,

(h) any other matter that is, in the opinion of the Secretary, relevant to the decision.

60 Day leave

(1) A person subject to control may be granted day leave only if:

(b) in the case of a classified person who is being detained for an indictable offence (not being a person to whom paragraph (a) applies)—the person has served at least one third of the person’s detention period, or

(c) in the case of any other person subject to control—the person has served at least one quarter of the person’s detention period.
(2) Despite subclause (1), the Secretary may grant day leave to a person subject to control at any time if the Secretary is satisfied that exceptional circumstances justify the grant of day leave.

Note. The granting of day leave to persons on remand is dealt with in section 23 (2) of the Act.

61 Overnight leave

(1) A person subject to control may be granted overnight leave only if:

(a) in the case of a person who is being detained for a serious children’s indictable offence and who is serving a detention period of more than 2 years—there is 6 months or less left until the person’s earliest release date, or

114 Breath testing and breath analysis of juvenile justice officers

(1) As soon as practicable after a juvenile justice officer has undergone a breath test under Division 2 of Part 4A of the Act, the authorised person who conducted the breath test must, if the concentration of alcohol determined by the breath test to be present in the officer’s breath or blood exceeds the prescribed concentration, deliver to the officer a statement in writing signed by the authorised person specifying:
   (a) the concentration of alcohol determined by the breath test to be present in the officer’s breath or blood and expressed in grammes of alcohol in 210 litres of breath or 100 millilitres of blood, and

(4) The authorised person may arrange for the analyst:
   (a) if the non-invasive sample was provided or taken under section 37K of the Act, to determine whether the sample indicates that the blood of the juvenile justice officer, by whom the sample was provided or from whom the sample was taken, contained alcohol, and if so, the concentration of alcohol in the blood of the officer or determine whether the sample contains a prohibited drug, or
   (b) if the non-invasive sample was provided or taken under section 37J of the Act, to determine whether the sample contains a prohibited drug.

(5) In the case of samples of urine, any sealed containers referred to in subclause (2) must be handled in accordance with the procedure set out in AS/NZ 4308:2008 or any other procedure approved by the Secretary for the purposes of this clause.
