Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to remake, without substantial changes, the Wills, Probate and Administration Regulation 1998. That Regulation will be repealed on 1 September 2003 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

This Regulation:

(a) sets $200,000 as the amount that the value of a deceased person’s estate must not exceed for the deceased person’s spouse to be entitled to the whole of that estate (to the exclusion of any children of the deceased person) in the event that the deceased person died without having made a will (clause 5), and

(b) sets 6 per cent per year as the rate at which interest is payable on a legacy or on the arrears of any annuity granted under a will (clause 6), and

(c) makes other provisions of a formal or ancillary nature (clauses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 7).

This Regulation is made under the Wills, Probate and Administration Act 1898, including section 153 (the general regulation-making power) and the sections referred to in this Regulation.
