Message Dear Sir, I am thrilled that you are considering a change in law to set aside previous paltry payments to abuse survivors, I am one of those people. In 2018 I was successful in the District Court of NSW in obtaining a conviction against a serial offender. I was also one of the first in Case Study 5. The flurry of the legal system seemed to be on the side of the institutions and not on the restitution of lifetimes lost by survivors at the beginning of the Commission and the abused seemed left out. It is refreshing to see this turn around and course of competent jurisdiction be allowed to adjudicate on these matters and not self interest groups in back rooms. Thank You

Sir, please get this through.

Regards,
